

Land, Water, and Sky: The Lives of Native Americans in Northeast Alabama before & after Removal

DeSoto State Park
July 26-30th
6 p.m.

July 26: Dr. Kelly Gregg: "Following the Trail of Tears"
July 27: Jerri Villegas: "Cherokee Women: Upholding Tradition"
July 28: Dr. Harry Holstein: "Stone Mounds & Other Wonders"
July 29: Shawn Waddell & Jason Hilley: "Evening Hike"

These programs are free to the public.

ALSO

Buck Windsor: Primitive Skills Workshop
July 29 & 30: Medicinal Plant Walk 10 a.m.
July 29 & 30: Primitive Cooking 5 p.m.

There are only 20 spaces available for each of these three special sessions. Registration is required and there is a fee of $10 that will go towards preserving our state and national treasures.

These programs are sponsored by DeSoto State Park and the National Park Service.
For more information, contact Keena Graham at: keena_graham@nps.gov
Or call (256) 4952672.